THE APPROACHING FAIR .- The approaching fair of the Metropolitan Mechanics' Institute, is most eagerly looked forward to by the mass our fellow citizens. Their last similar exhibition was very successful, being more so handicraft of our own local manufacturers in all branches of the useful and ornamental arts there will be even a much larger and more diversified exposition of valuable works from a distance than on the occasion to which we refer above. It should be recellected by those who make wares suitable to be shown in such a fair, that during the proposed exhibition our city will be crowded with persons from all quarters of the Union, of the partic ular class, too, upon whom it will be worth much indeed for producers of goods for consumption every where to make good impressions. Our winter sojourners are almost entirely persons of standing and influence at home—the men of active minds and impressive thought in every State in the Union We throw out this hint to be reflected on by artisans in other quarters.

THE RACES -It will be perceived in another column, that we are to have three days racing, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday next, over the Columbia Course. The track is in excellent order, and the roads to and from it, leading to Washington, Alexandria and Georgetown, were never in better condition for a drive or ride out It is said by the knowing ones that the horses which are to run, are all superior nags. Mary Payne, the Alexandria mare that obtained a victory easily on Saturday last, it is thought by the fancy is about to meet her match on the day for which she is entered. There can be no doubt that the attendance will be very large throughout the season, and that "the fancy" will find more pleasure in the their way on the Colum bia Course during the balarce of this week, than ever before since the track was opened

THE BALLS TO-NIGHT .- The young and joyous among our fellow-citizens of Washington and Alexandria, of both sexes, will have a great treat to-night at the balls of the Boone Rifles, at Odd-Fellows' Hall, Navy Yard; of the Arlington Club at Carusi's Saloon; and of the Mount Vernon Guards at Alexandria, These reunions are delightful beyond measure. and it is one of the best possible signs of real improvement in the population of this region, to find them becoming so universally popular. The occasion is the one of all occasions for such entertainments. The parties charged with the management of all three of these balls, have exerted themselves to make happy all who may favor them with their presence. We predict a glorious time to-night to all who may attend either ball

THE PRESENTATION TO-NIGHT .- There is to be a tremendous rush to the Parrows' presentation to-night, and well there may be. Messrs. M. W. Galt & Brother have just made by Mr. Parrow to the fire company which has sold the largest number of tickets for his en tertainment at Iron Hall. Remember, the entertainment comes off this evening. The trumpet is very massive, and measures twenty one inches in height and eight and a half inches across the base. It is elaborately chased, representing oak leaves, acorns, and wreaths of flowers. In point of beauty and workmanship it is unsurpassed, and the lucky company may be justly proud of so liberal a gift.

REV. MR. CAROTHERS' CHURCH .- On Sunday morning and evening large congregations were present, when the pastor preached, and the anxious seats were filled. The work increases in interest and success. About fifty persons have become inquirers. One gratifying feature of this work is, that thus far the individuals interested are young men and young women, and heads of families. This week the Rev. Mr. Sunderland preaches every evening. The numerous friends of Mr. Carothers will be glad to learn that while his health is not now the most robust, he has been able to attend to all his pastoral duties for the past month, and has labored with an energy and seal during his protracted meetings, which have not only cheered his own people, but given promise of a permanent restoration to health and of increased usefulness in his ministerial work.

WOOD AND COAL DEALERS .- Many gentlemen engaged in this business complain with great justice at newspaper paragraphs intimating that they are, as a class, in this city in the habit of giving short measure and weight. They demand that if there are parties in the trade in Washington who indulge should be named. When such publications are made, general denunciations on this account are both unjust and in very bad taste: inasmuch as it is well known that we have not among us more correct business men, as a class, than our wood and coal dealers.

THE KUNKELS .- This talented company is attracting crowds at the Mational Theatre, where they are now performing. It is not every company that can perform as skilfully as the "Kunkel Troupe," even among the professional musicians. Good music and fun for the audience will be produced nightly. Their programme for to-night presents musical gems of the highest order.

THE GIANT'S LEVEES .- The thousands who daily attend the Giant s levees, are highly de lighted, especially with Miss Crouse, whose equal does not exist. It is worth double the and well formed; but he should wear his toga correctly, and not smoke in the presence of ladies, by whom the hall is frequently crowded. We advise all to visit them before they leave the city.

INSULTING LADIES -A correspondent requests us to insert the following: Messrs. Editors-Last night, two respectable ladies, while on their way from the Avenue to Dr. Hill's church, were insulted by a ruffian, who rushed on them from the corner of D and 10th stree:s The fellow would have received the deserved punishment had any gentleman been there at the time It is to be deplor that the police should allow such disturbances to occur among a civilised com-A SUBSCRIBER. CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE MONUMENT.-The Board of Managers of the Washington National Monument Society would most respectfully request the pastors of the different churches to take up collections in their congregations, on Thanksgiving day, to aid in the completion of the national monument now in course of erection in this city to the memory of the Father of his Country.

A RACE AND ARREST. - The Auxilliary Quards happened to meet with a young man, named William Baker, at the fire last night for whom they had been seeking for a long while. He was active and gave them a foot race, but was taken and confined in the guardhouse. This morning he was brought out for trial before Justice Morsell, who ordered him to pay a fine and costs in two cases.

COTILLON PARTY .- The second cotillon party of the Americus Club, is to take place on the evening of Wednesday, December 27, of which sure, says the Loudon (Va ) Washingtonian, of due notice has been given. The members of this enterprising club are determined to furnish pleasure and amusement for their friends, and are consequently making extensive arrangements for the approaching evening. FIRES.—Yesterday afternoon a fire broke out in the cabinet shop of Mr. King, near Apolio Hail. Luckily it was discovered in time to extinguish it before any considerable Ward, which destroyed the store and Mr. Bar wards until the property was burned.

The extensive sale of furniture at the Union Hotel, by E. S Wright, which commences on Monday morning, is still going on, and probably will close this atternoon. SUFFERING IN NEBRASKA. - A gentleman recently returned from the far West, informs the New York Mirror that there is already much suffering among the Nebraska emigrants for in such a practice, it is but proper that they the necessaries of life; and that the coming winter threatens to preve fatal to a large portion of the settlers. Without houses to live in-without markets (if they had money) to supply them food, and with no fish and very little game, the poor emigrants who have gone out there under the lead of Anti-S. avery fanatics must hurry home or die for want of food. In most cases these poor squatters have not money enough to pay their way back to STONE WARKHOUSE upon it suitable for a mill or their comfortable New England homes for which they are now sadly sighing. Will our Abolition philanthropists who have been instrumental in getting up this exodus, provide some miraculous manner to save their deluded victims from starvation? ORGANIZATION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA price to see her alone. The Giant is large LEGISLATURE. - The Legislature of North Carolina was organized on the 20th. S. P.
